Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The State of South Dakota is highly dependent upon its tourism industry for significant contributions to the state budget; and,

WHEREAS, 1981 has been a year of rewarding recovery throughout the industry; and,

WHEREAS, Peter Thomas has been the spokesman of South Dakota tourism for the last two seasons; and,

WHEREAS, His voice has lent an air of mystery and lure to South Dakota television messages; and,

WHEREAS, We are indebted to Peter Thomas for giving of himself on behalf of our tourism promotion efforts:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 1, 1981, as in South Dakota, and I urge all segments of the tourism industry to recognize the contributions which Peter Thomas has made to the betterment of our promotions in 1980 and 1981.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-second Day of September, In the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
